Enable Network Level Authentication for RDP

These instructions pertain to Windows 7, but a similar process is valid for newer versions.

1) Open Remote Settings via Start Button → Control Panel → System and Security → System → Remote Settings. Choose “Allow connections only from computers running Remote Desktop with Network Level Authentication (more secure)”.

Press Apply → OK.